

Gospel

How are you growing as a disciple and MC leader right now?

What is the next step for you spiritually, and how can we help you grow?

What are you learning and studying in your alone time?

How are the discussions going in your MC? Are they getting the gospel? Are you seeing evidence of ongoing repentance and faith?

What issues is your group dealing with right now? Are there “Fight Club conversations” going on in your MC (open conversations about marriage, finances, pornography, etc)?

Are you praying for the people in your MC on a regular basis?

Community

What does “community look like in your MC right now? What are your weekly rhythms?

Describe what your MC gatherings look like. Are you bearing one another’s burdens?

Describe your prayer times. How can you nurture the prayerfulness of your community?

Who are some new people who have been visiting your MC?

Who are some people that seem to be disconnected? How can you reengage them?

What is the next step for you in developing community and “family” in your MC? How often are you getting together outside of your MC gathering?

Are you people in your MC participating in Fight Clubs? How can you raise this value and help people move toward gospel-centered discipleship?

How are the group logistics working out (meals, location, kids, etc.)?

Is everyone engaged on The City?

Mission

What people/place is your MC making disciples of right now?

Have new people been added to your MC in the past 3-6 months? Who are they? Have they come from Sunday gatherings, or from MC relationships?

Has anyone become a believer in your MC in the past 3-6 months? Does anyone need to be baptized?

Who are you discipling and having gospel conversations with outside of Sacred City?

How far along are the emerging leaders in your group? Is God moving your group to multiply? When?

Are people serving within Sacred City? Do you know their areas of talent, Spiritual gifts, and passion?

Where can you celebrate the mission of God moving forward in your MC?
